Zoom Zine Workshop, Monday 7 & Thursday 10 February 2022 1pm – 3pm

Organised by Dr. Louisa Preston, a WiRe (Women in Research Fellow) at WWU Münster, Book Studies, in partnership with Prof. Dr. Corinna Norrick-Rühl, this two-part zine workshop introduces zine formats and the main reasons that people make them. In part one of this hands-on workshop, you will explore the possibilities for applying zine-making to relevant topics of study, personal or community interests, and experiment with all manner of creative content to produce a folded zine out of one sheet of paper. In part two we will work on the production of either an individual or collaborative group zine. Participation in both parts of the workshop is recommended.

Materials

You don't need any specialist materials to join in this workshop but you will need some materials which should be easy to find around your home or at a local newsagent/stationer.

Essential Items:

- Paper (variety of weights, colours, etc) and card Glue and or sticky tape – Cellotape, masking tape etc.
- Ruler (see through plastic one best option)
- o Pair of Scissors
- Pens, pencils, felt-tip coloured pens, crayons, charcoal, any other mark making tool of your choosing...

Optional Extras*

- Printed ephemera, photos, ticket stubs, postcards, etc.
- o Images cut out from magazines or website
- Text (poetry, writing of any kind you want to explore/use in your zine)
- Stapler

Pre-Workshop Tasks

Please bring your ideas of what a zine is to you for discussion, along with potential themes or issues you would like to see being addressed by a zine (individual or group). Feel free to share your thoughts and references to relevant sources on any aspect of zine culture and DIY publishing on this Padlet. These can be zine-related books, websites, and archives located in Germany, the UK and anywhere else of interest. We look forward to seeing you!

^{*}These items will add an extra visual and creative dimension to the possibilities for you in making your zine.
